

Murray's Boston Store

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

Purchase Your Wearing Apparel
At Once and You Will Not Be Disappointed

At present our stocks of Fall and Winter Merchandise are complete in every detail. We should not consider it necessary to make this announcement to you if it were not for the extraordinary mercantile conditions which prevail today.

THERE IS A GOOD ADVANTAGE IN BUYING EARLY

We advise you to make your purchases at once, however, because delay is almost sure to mean disappointment. If you buy now you will have stocks to choose from as complete as could be expected under the present conditions. If you wait later you will have to depend upon merchandise hurriedly gathered from various sources. This in addition to the fact that a further increase in prices is inevitable.

FALL AND WINTER COATS	FALL SUITS
Are Priced as Low as $15.00 and up to $95.00	Are Priced as Low as $27.50 and up to $55.00

FURS ARE WONDERFULLY POPULAR

You will look more attractive, be warmer and be in supreme style if you'll wear Furs this Fall. There's no end to the variety of good Furs here. Prices and sets made up of all favored pelts from the most inexpensive to the least costly. Furs are going up in prices and we're almost positive that these values won't be equalled this year—$6.50 up to $27.50.

SMART SEPARATE SKIRTS ATTRACTIVE NEW FALL DRESSES

Scores of smart styles are finely tailored by experts to insure their perfect hang and graceful drape. Many panel effects are shown, although most of the styles show a simplicity which is as sensible as it is pleasant to look upon.

Here are the season's finest models developed in Wool, Jersey, Fine Wool Serge, Taffeta and Silk Poplin, trimmed most effectively with beads, braids, buttons, while on some pleats, drapes gathers and sashes are featured with splendid effect—priced at $15.00 and up to $35.00.

DO YOU KNOW THE COMFORT OF A BATH ROBE?

If you don't, you haven't an idea what you miss. When the air is chilly and raw you just slip your arms inside the sleeves of a Blanket Robe, and lo, the chill has lost its terrors for you. Try it. Blanket Robes in assorted patterns showing checks, stripes, flowers and so on, trimmed with satin facings, cords and frogs come at $4.39 to $10.00.

WASH FABRICS

In a season when merchandise is so scarce and production so high, you'd hardly expect such a remarkably fine showing of Wash Goods as we have assembled for Fall shoppers.

GINGHAMS ARE POPULAR

Seldom has a vogue been maintained as has that of Gingham. They bid fair to continue their popularity of last season all throughout the Fall and Winter, and why not? Is there any cotton material which gives such satisfying service and is so trim and attractive looking?

The assortment contains Plaids, Stripes from "pin to broad," and Checks, and in most every possible combination of colors at 35c, 39c, 45c and 50c a yard.

OTHER WASH FABRICS

The first Halloween social of the season was held by the Menebaes at their rooms on Valley street, Thursday night, and all reported a most enjoyable evening.

In the interest of the community safety the co-operating churches decided to voluntarily discontinue church services during the epidemic, even before such action was properly required by the health officer. For the past several weeks church services have been omitted. Cases of illness and death in these congregations have been comparatively few. Every precaution has been taken and will now be exercised in the reopening of the churches. Heating and ventilation will receive careful attention, that every member of every church may attend church, Sunday school, or young people's meetings with confidence. First Baptist church, Arthur D. Carpenter, minister, Sunday at 10:45 morning worship, sermon theme, "The Passing of the Plague, Am I My Brother's Keeper?" 12 noon, church service, 7 p. m., evening service, subject, Can Christian Science Cure Spanish Influenza?

Christian Science services will be held in the Woman's Club room, 104 1/2 Main street, Sunday morning at 10:45. Subject of lesson-sermon: Probation After Death. Golden Text, Ephesians 4:17.

St. Paul's Episcopal church will be thoroughly ventilated and heated for service at the usual hour Sunday morning. While the epidemic is rapidly dying out in the parish, there are still many who are ill and for safety there will be no celebration of the holy Communion. The service will consist of litany and ante-communion. The church school will open the first Sunday in November. The Rev. Walter F. Berchet will conduct the service.

First Congregational church, October 27, Harry B. McCready, minister. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Morning worship, 11 a. m. 7:30 p. m. Informal home fire service in the church house. A piano sing will be conducted by C. H. Caswell, the first in a series of talks on Life-Lessons taught by War Strategists will be given—1. Keeping the Line Unbroken. Before the war, home, a "get together sing" around the piano.

The Brotherhood, the Ladies' society, the Girl Pioneers, the Sodality, and the Woman's Missionary society will be called together by their respective officers within a fortnight.

Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. C. H. Smith, minister. 10:45 a. m. Public worship conducted by the pastor and an address by A. C. Burdick, representing the New England Southern Conference. A short conference of men at the close of the service. 12 m. Sunday school. 6 p. m. Epworth League meeting, led by C. H. Bradley, the president. Religion and Democracy in the Modern City. Acts 6:1-7. 7 p. m. the pastor will preach. Mr. Smith will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church at South Coventry at 12:45 p. m. at the close of the Sunday school which meets at 12:45 a. m. A short conference of workers will be held at the close of the meeting.

John Ballistrone of New London called at the garage of the Jordan Auto company Thursday to claim a car which had been left standing on the back road at Windham for three days. Mr. Ballistrone had purchased the car in New York and was driving it home when it broke down and he left it by the roadside. When he returned for it he found that the police department had notified the Jordan Auto company to take the car to their garage.

Otto E. Wulf, of Norwich, was in town Friday, acting as the representative of the retail merchants of Norwich, New London and Willimantic. In an address before the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Willimantic Chamber of Commerce, he recommended a curtailment of hours in retail stores for the coming winter as a war measure. A communication has been received from the Atlantic division of the Red Cross by Mrs. Charles Tryon of 153 Church street, chairman of the committee on Christmas parcels that between October 25 and November 1, all chapters of the American Red Cross will have received the official cartons for Christmas gifts to American fighting men in France, according to an announcement made by the Atlantic division of the Red Cross. The cartons will be distributed only to those persons who have received the official Christmas labels issued to the men in the Expeditionary forces, and which are to be sent by them direct to the relatives from whom they desire to receive gifts. The Red Cross had nothing to do whatever with the issuance of these labels overseas.

Rev. John E. Clark, pastor of the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic church, at Suffield, has been transferred to this city to become rector of St. Joseph's church, succeeding the late Rev. Father Timothy F. Ransom. Rev. Clark was born in Lowell City about fifty years ago. His family went to Suffield Springs when he was a small boy, and there he received his grammar school education. He was ordained a priest at the Grand Seminary, Montreal, December 3, 1891. He has been a curate at St. Bernard's, Rockville, and later in Waterbury. In 1903, he became rector of St. Patrick's church, Collinsville, and in 1913, was transferred to the Sacred Heart church, Suffield.
